SKYWEST AIRLINES LTD*(formerly known as Advent Air Ltd, "Skywest" or the "Company")*UPDATE ON NEW AND ADDITIONAL REGULAR AIR SERVICES Increased number of flights to meet growing demand

The board of Skywest, the Australian and South East Asia regional airline operator, is pleased to provide an update on the financial performance of additional routes that have been recently added and informs the market of the introduction of additional services to Bali and Esperance.

Melbourne

After being introduced in October 2007, Skywest advises that its Kalgoorlie – Melbourne route was profitable from the month of December 2007 and the Directors are pleased that it is making a positive contribution to the Company. The load factor for the Kalgoorlie – Melbourne route in December was 51%.

Bali

In conjunction with a charter partner, Islandbound Holidays, Skywest will add additional services to Bali, Indonesia from 6 April 2008. The extra weekly flight will operate (subject to government approvals) on Sundays departing Port Hedland at 0800 and arriving in Denpasar Bali at 1010. The flight will return from Denpasar at 1110 and arrive back into Port Hedland at 1320. The flight will then provide onward connections to both Broome and Perth. The flight will be Skywest's second weekly service to the holiday island of Bali and provide a valuable link from the Pilbara region of Western Australia to Indonesia. Currently Skywest is the only airline flying international services from the Pilbara region of WA.

Esperance

In response to consumer demand Skywest has added additional services for the Perth – Esperance route. The additional flight will be on each Sunday departing at 1000. The additional services commence on 10 February 2008.
