SKYWEST AIRLINES LTD

(formerly known as Advent Air Ltd, "Skywest" or the "Company")

Skywest flies into 45th year of operations

The Board of Skywest, the Australian and South East Asia regional airline operator is pleased to announce that today Skywest Airlines is celebrating its 45th Birthday, an event that will be celebrated for the entire duration of April.

Skywest Airlines began operations in 1963 as 'Carnarvon Air Taxis'. The journey over the last 4 decades has seen the airline develop from humble beginnings to a fleet of 13 aircraft, flying to 25 destinations over ten Australian States and Internationally.

Jeff Chatfield, Executive Chairman, Skywest, commenting on reaching this significant milestone said:

"The notable age of the airline highlights its stability and strength. Skywest turning 45 comes at an exciting time for the airline, as Skywest once again expands its fleet with an additional two Jets secured and set to arrive in the coming month."
