SKYWEST AIRLINES REGAINS HIGHEST ON TIME PERFORMANCE IN AUSTRALIA

The Board of Advent Air announces in connection with the business of its wholly owned subsidiary Skywest Airlines Pty Ltd ("Skywest") that the Australian Government's Bureau of Transport and Regional Statistics publication of Airline On Time Performance for June 2007 reports that Skywest has regained the position of having the best On Time Performance ("OTP") of all airlines reporting such statistics in Australia.

Skywest OTP position for June 2007 was number 1 in Australia
Skywest June 2007 On Time Departure performance was 87.3%
Skywest June 2007 On Time Arrival performance was 84.8%

OTP has been an issue of acute attention for the last few months. Skywest's OTP was mentioned as one "Challenge and Risk" in the Company Update published on the 17th of May 2007.

The Australian Government's Bureau of Transport and Regional Statistics publications may be found at <http://www.btre.gov.au>.

Jeff Chatfield, Chairman of Advent Air commented: "We are delighted with the OTP by Skywest. The fact that it is the best performer in Australia is a strong indicator that the airline continues to move from strength to strength. With more aircraft and more destinations than ever before it continues to maintain its high standards."
